

Interview Prep

Time to show off those pearly whites! You've made it through a rigorous selection process, and now you're getting ready for some real-life face time in the form of an interview, or perhaps a series of interviews. Either way, we're on it.

Price: $800 USD

Get Ready to Shine

Our expert team helps you demonstrate that you're both a strong fit for a particular school and well-prepared for a demanding career that requires constant interaction with colleagues, patients, and the public.

A winning combination of proven prep content and expert interview coaching sets you up to succeed in your one-on-one interview (or interviews!) and the follow-through. In your hour-long FaceTime meeting, you'll receive seasoned advice on selecting an interview wardrobe (pro tip: leave the fake mustache at home), avoiding common interview mistakes, and how best to convey your enthusiasm for healthcare while showcasing your eligibility.

Open Communication

Enjoy ninety days of access to our online portal—it's your entry point to our exclusive interview prep materials, and a prompt and efficient channel of communication to your admissions expert.

Rush Review Option Available
