

Rejection Review

In this service, we will provide a comprehensive assessment of every aspect of your previous application and develop a game plan for a successful reapplication to ensure your acceptance!

Price: $800 USD

Didn't get accepted? - We're here to help!

Work with a seasoned admissions expert on a strategy that will address your potential mistakes and enhance your chances for acceptance.

What's Included

- Your Admissions Expert will assess your admissions profile based on your intake assessment and prior application to identify strengths and weaknesses and ways to improve them for when you reapply.
- Your Admissions Expert will then schedule a phone call with you to review this information. During this time, you can also ask questions and discuss our recommendations.
- Next, we will provide written feedback and advice on how to improve all elements of your application (essays, experiences, interviews, letters of rec, etc.), address and improve on your weaknesses, and highlight your unique strengths.
- In addition, you will have thirty days of access to our online portal to keep you connected to your Admissions Expert for any additional questions.
- If, within 30 days of purchase, you decide to purchase an Admissions Counseling or Premier Admissions Counseling Package for your reapplication, we will credit 100% of your Rejection Review cost towards your admissions counseling package.
